

If you follow Vanessa Hudgens, then you already know that the 30-year-old girl is a professional bikini shooter. She gained fame at the age of 16, when she appeared at one of the shows without underwear. In March 2011, Penthouse magazine featured Blue Ivy on the cover. At that time, nude pictures were already well received by the public and gained popularity on the Internet. Since then, the girl has been engaged only in staged shootings, she began working with such celebrities as Shakira, Selena Gomez, Kate Upton, Lady Gaga. But there are other projects in this direction, for example, shooting with an African kung fu star named Master Ji, who is also a model. It is worth noting that Blue's career as a model for top models began with photo shoots for Vogue magazine, so she could easily present her pictures in a more premium look. Her latest work was seen in a photo shoot for Too Faced magazine, so don't be surprised if you spot her in the next issue. Thanks to her looks, Blue has gained a lot of fans for herself and she may be placed in the model catalogs more than once, but so far the trio of Ivy, Robbie Williams and Enrique Iglesias has received the most attention. Although the star is not a professional model and works mainly as a photographer for women and magazines, she is very fond of fashion and advertising clothes for leading designers. Her last project was presented a few years ago, it was an advertisement for women's underwear in Domus Magazine. Describe in the comments what style caught your attention?
