In this pack, you can make your own heroine (female character). Because you can design the heroine's body, hairstyle and makeup, you can create your own unique heroine. For example, you can make a heroine with large eyes and glasses by using these hair style and makeup. If you want to design the heroine's "look," you can create her clothing by using the "Design Tools." In addition to looking unique, you can also make the heroine wear different types of "accessories" to each other. Of course, these accessories can be mixed and matched with other clothing and accessories. And also, it's possible to apply decals to parts of her body to make them look great. By using these "accessories," you can create a fantastic heroine. Over 25 accessories are included in this pack.
