Beech Grove on Peachtree Road Beech Grove on Peachtree Road was a planned development, located in northwest Atlanta, Georgia, which was supposed to include a total of 1,200 single family homes, apartments, and townhouses. This project was originally conceived during the early 2000s and began construction in 2005. However, it was built very slowly and was ultimately canceled in 2015. The entire first phase of the project, to include several thousand townhouses and apartment units, is not expected to be finished and the townhouse phase was expected to be completed in 2018. History Beech Grove on Peachtree Road was planned to be a mixed-income development consisting of over 1,200 single-family homes and townhouses. This section of Peachtree Road was initially envisioned for improvement and redevelopment, as it had been neglected for quite some time. The first phase of the development would have included the purchase and redevelopment of the former University Park Apartments. In 2005, developer Gary Starnes announced plans for a $1 billion, development that would include 1,200 townhouse-style units on at e79caf774b
