elemento finito chandrupatla pdfAs the population of the world continues to swell, millions of people are forced to live in shantytowns or slums. All too often these shantytowns are built on a grass-roots level with little support or design. Called settlements or informal neighborhoods, many of these slum dwellers are in dire need of a solution to their housing problems. And as more and more people settle in these slums, raising the number of people inhabiting each area, the health problems and limited opportunities arise. In China, there are approximately five million slum dwellers, with two-thirds of the population living in the formal economy. In India, there are estimated to be 15 million such slum dwellers. In the United States, approximately 30-40 million people currently live in urban neighborhoods which they feel are "slums." Two innovative solution providers are offering their services to the slums of the world, providing design, construction and programming support. Leverage Investing Leverage Investing Inc. (LTI) is an innovative investment company dedicated to sustainable, long-term development in urban Africa, Asia and Latin America. Led by Raj and his wife Vrinda Agarwal, LTI works with partners to realize the tremendous potential that is often diverted by the short-termism of the corporate sector. LTI works in three primary areas: * Slum Development- improving quality of life in cities to make them more livable, resilient and long-term sustainable. * Social Transformation- reducing the concentration of poverty and improving food and health security in informal settlements through development of local communities. * Infrastructure and Transport- working with partners to develop and deliver comprehensive integrated solutions, including roads and transportation, water, waste water, food and healthcare systems, and basic and low-cost housing. LTI's work is focused in several African cities, primarily in Kenya, Uganda, Zambia, Ethiopia, Rwanda, India, Peru and Brazil. Leverage Programming Leverage Programming has been working in cities across Africa and the Middle East, providing assistance and training to local communities, governments and development agencies to address the pressing problems of poverty, homelessness and health that these communities are facing. In Nigeria, Leverage Programming is providing technical assistance to a slum reform project to help transform the system of informal slums by providing
