The example level that comes with Unreal Engine 4 doesn't have any weapons. Its source is available here: What are the minimum requirements for the created example level and the weapon system? Will an installation of Unreal Engine 4 be enough? Or will you need its own Launcher instead? A: The scenario is a built in for the character of the Avatar. The avatar follows an unspecified path through an age old temple which is filled with traps and enemies of different kinds. The enemies at the moment are based on those from Zelda 2 from the Nintendo 64 If you look at the environment you see that it's set up as a first person view (a FPS) and you walk around it. You can equip yourself with weapons and explore the level with only the character. There are two different weapons at the moment, a rocket launcher and a pistol. There are no rocket launcher NPCs at the moment but we c6a93da74d
